

Descendancy Chart of Richard Wood from 1771 to 2012, compiled by Patrica Button and R. D. Wood

Richard Wood and his wife (born Anne Farmer) had nine children, all born at Warehorne, Kent, between 1771 and 1797: Sarah; Anne (who lived only until she was 12); Edward; Richard; Susannah; Catherine; William; John; and Anne.

Only the descent from two of these children have so far been traced: i.e. Richard (his children only, at Warehorne from 1805 to 1817), and the main subject of this study, the family tree from John covering 1815 to the present time. He was the youngest son, born at Warehorne on 29 December 1789, married Elizabeth Playford of Iden, near Rye, in 1815. There were fifteen children. First born to Elizabeth was Harriet (although christened at Iden more than six months before the marriage, there can be little doubt that John was her father, as the name given at baptism was Wood Playford), then John; George; Mary; Richard; William; Elizabeth (died within a year); Thomas; Sarah Anne; Susannah; Charles; Henry; Elizabeth; Charlotte; and lastly, in 1839, Dinah who did not reach the age of 2.

The family lines from several of those children are dealt with below, but especially Thomas Wood, born at Midley (in an isolated position in the middle of Romney Marsh about three miles north of Lydd) in 1826 who married Elizabeth Duff Butchers of Camber in 1852. Like his father before him, Thomas had fifteen children, the first few were born at Midley, the rest at Lydd. First born was William (christened only two months after their marriage) then Thomas in 1854 (who emigrated to South Australia); Henry; Edmund; Joseph; (Ellen) Elizabeth (emigrated to California); Sarah Ann, Alexander (born 1865, married Florence Sharrard in 1891); all the children after Alexander were girls, Julia; Caroline; Eliza; Kate; Maria; Louisa; Charlotte (the last born, at Lydd in 1877).
